Chapter 1 by Night bringer

It was about midnight when it all started. i was laying in my bed waiting for anything just something to happen so i could fall asleep (i forgot to turn the fan on) Usually noise helps me fall asleep but today i couldn't hear a sound. Then a blistering hot pain touched the back of my skull, it hurt so much i think i passed out. I woke up at school, Must have been a dream i thought. Then, suddenly a huge black mix between a gargoyle and a werewolf burst into the classroom. The first to go was my teacher. Mr. Knight (awesome last name by the way) he was dragged to the ground and out of the classroom. We all panicked and ran around like kids at a toy store. I ran straight to a closet and hid till things got quiet. Really quiet, i open the closet door just a smidge and all i see are bodies of my best friends and favorite teacher. then i decide to walk out of the closet to see what was going on. Then at the back off my skull just like the dream i felt a searing pain in my head like something stuck a hot knife in my brain. Then i passed out and woke up
